CAPT. DANIEL FRIEL FLIES COMMODORE FLAG

The Pacific Mail liner China, Captain Daniel Friele, which arrived last Monday night from the Orient, passed quarantine and docked early yesterday morning, says the Call.
When the quarantine flag was hauled down there was hoisted to the fore a commodore's pennant, an outward and visible sign of the rank in the Pacific Mail service of Captain Dan Friele, the liner's commander. Captain Friele has been commodore captain since the death of the late Captain Seabury, but this is the first time that "Ninety Fathom Dan" has made formal declaration of the fact. R. P. Schwerin boarded the liner at Honolulu, inspected the ship, found everything in apple pie order, or, to conform with the vernacular of the sea, "shipshape and Bristol fashion," and there and then directed that a commodore's pennant be made as a mark of honor to Captain Friele and an inspiration to Captain Zeeder, who, of the captains on the China run, stands next in length of service to Commodore Friele.

Captain Friele has been in the Pacific Mail service for more than 40 years. His first command was the old sidewheel steamer China, of which he was made master in 1877.
Between the old China and the new he commanded the City of Peking, City of Sydney and Peru, all on the China run. He made one voyage to Nome during the Klondike excitement as master of the San Juan. In all his years of service he has never met with an accident.

With only 142 miles of its line from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Oakland, Cal., to be constructed, the Western Pacific Company expects to have trains in operation between the two cities within ninety days.

A memorandum has been filed by Attorney Holmes, Stanley and Olson in the matter of the estate of Antonio sets to pay the debts of the deceased.

Miss Florence Deverill, who was the Kauai representative in the Bulletin's Alaska-Yukon exposition party, happy trip to the Fair and through Oregon. Miss Deverill speaks in the highest terms of the work that is being done at the Hawaii exhibit in Seattle. She says the Fair is a great success in every way and unlike many others, is making money. While in Seattle Miss Deverill visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, whom she found very pleasantly located.

MIKE O'DOWDA DIES AT MAKAWELI

Michael O'Dowda, sugar boiler at Makaweli, died suddenly this morning and his remains will be brought to town by the Kinau, which leaves Kauai this evening.
"Mike," as he was affectionately known all over the islands, was a brother of Thomas O'Dowda, who for many years has been head sugar boiler at Ewa.

Michael O'Dowda was employed at one time at Ewa mill, and later on at Pauahau and Pahala plantations. He was considered to be one of the best sugar boilers in the islands and was a very bright man.

The deceased had been sugar boiling at Makaweli for the past two years and had gained a large number of friends who will all mourn his untimely end. The news of Mike's death will be heard with great regret from one end of the group to the other. His was a large heart, and his friendship was much prized by hundreds of plantation men.

PROBE HOLUALOA SCHOOL QUESTION

Superintendent of Public Instruction Habbitt and the Oahu members of the Commission of Public Instruction have been giving the question involved in the transfer of Mrs.
Maydwell from the Holualoa school extended consideration, and it is understood that Superintendent Habbitt and the commissioners are of the opinion that change should be made in the administration of the school. Mrs. Maydwell's side of the case has been presented to Superintendent Habbitt and is coupled with the assertions of a number of the residents of the Holualoa district, who testify to the rather arbitrary methods pursued by Mrs.
Scott, the principal.
